Sunday Afternoon July 3. 1859.

It rained ^{very heavily} at 3 o'clock and the shower continued till all the services were over. The missionary nevertheless proceeded with the services on a barge, with a very small audience. A few more came, and at the end of the sermon there were 26 attending, exclusive of the persons attached to the mission & the visitors; and all were very attentive to the sermon & afterwards came to the room.

It is noticeable that the sobriety and seriousness of the audiences steadily increases; and also that the singing is participated in by many of the men, and is producing more interest.

2 Testaments, 1 Common Prayer, 3 Manuals, 3 Newton,
2 Sheffield, and numerous papers given out.

Present of the Board

Mr Mitchell, Mr Pott,
